H. Place to supply materials-

1. The supply of edible oil mentioned in the tender has to be done at the Sansthan's Store department near Shri Sai Mandir at Shirdi or at a godown of the Sansthan on Bypass Road. Occasionally, it will also have to be supplied at Prasadalya department.

I. Security deposit amount and agreement-

1. As per government procurement regulations, those whose tenders will be approved will have to keep an amount of 3% of the total supply order amount as security deposit with the Sansthan as a guarantee to supply the goods within the prescribed period. This security deposit amount will be refunded after the supply of the said materials. No interest will be earned on security deposit or earnest money.
2. A security deposit of 3% is to be paid immediately after the tender is approved. Also it will be mandatory to appear at Shirdi and notarize the instant agreement on stamp paper of Rs.100/-. The notary fee of the contract has to be paid by the tenderer.

J. Term for supply of Edible Oil

1. The period of supply of Edible oil will be from April 2024 to March 2025.
2. Edible Oil should be supplied within 10 days from the date of issuing the edible oil as per the schedule given in the demand challan. In some cases, the supply will have to be done even after informing on telephone.
3. If the temple has to be closed due to natural calamities, epidemics, then the Sansthan will not be bound to purchase the oil as per the estimated quantity shown in the e-tender during such period. The edible oil requirement for the Prasadalya may be less or more than the estimated quantity shown in the e-tender, depending on the number of devotees taking Prasad Bhojan. Therefore, it will not be binding on the Sansthan to purchase goods up to the estimated quantity in the e-tender.
4. Since the said demand of the Sansthan is estimated, during the supply period or even after the procurement process of the next year should be completed, if the Sansthan demands 25 percent more edible oil than the approved quantity, it will be obligatory on the tenderer to supply the edible oil at the accepted rate.
5. After giving the supply order, the supply of the edible oil mentioned in the supply order is not at once. The demand challan will be sent to the supplier every month as per the requirement of the Sansthan. The quantity mentioned in the supply order will be approximate and the actual demand will depend on the number of devotees. Therefore, it will not be binding on the Sansthan to purchase the quantity mentioned in the e-tender or supply order.

K. Method of acceptance of Edible Oil-

1. Supply of Edible Oil shall be as per Brand/description in supply order and bill of goods/materials shall be submitted accordingly.
2. The Edible Oil for which tenders are approved Brand must be of approved quality and type. Inferior quality, different Brand or substandard Oil will not be accepted. If such Oil is supplied, it will be binding on the tenderer to take it back immediately at their own expense. If it is not carried, the Sansthan will not be responsible for the damage of the same.
3. After issuing the supply order to the supplier, the supplier shall be bound to supply the Edible Oil as per the Brand selected by the expert committee of the Sansthan.
4. After sending the Edible Oil to the Sansthan as per the supply order, the Oil will be inspected by the system prescribed by the Sansthan. The Oil will be accepted if they think fit. The suppliers should ensure that the Oil is supplied as per the given sample.
5. Since the quantity of Edible Oil being supplied is huge, the Oil is accepted by randomly sampling from the Sansthan. However, if any lot or container or any defective Oil is found after receiving it to be replaced at his own cost.
6. The label on the container of Edible Oil should be as per the provisions of Food Safety Rules 2011 and Valid Measurements.

It should mention the following items.

1. Manufacturer's FSSAI License No.
2. Brand & Quantity
3. Lot No/ Batch No & Date of Manufacturing
4. Warranty as to quality and standards as required by law
7. Certificate of Analysis of Edible Oil of N.A.B.L./Govt. lab/in house lab of the Manufacturing Company. A copy of the same should be given while supplying the edible oil to the Sansthan.
8. Edible oil has to be supplied in new tin cans of 15 kg/15 ltr. Also the container should preferably have a berry cap style lid.
9. If the Edible Oil supplied in the supply order are found to be adulterated or of inferior quality, the respective supplier shall be solely responsible for the same.
10. The material used for packing the Edible Oil should be Food grade.
11. The weight of the supplied oil excluding the tin weight will be taken into account.

L. Procedure for the laboratory testing-

1. The supplied Edible Oil will be tested as per requirement by Sansthan's Laboratory/ District Health Laboratory/ NABL/ Central Govt/State Govt approved laboratory.
2. If the report of the supplied Edible Oil is not as per IS Standards in the lab inspection conducted by the Sansthan, the said Oil will have to be replaced. Meanwhile, if the Sansthan has to procure Oil from outside, the amount of excess expenditure incurred plus a penalty of 5 per cent of the Oil supplied price will be recovered from the bill amount of any Oil payable/Security Deposit.

3. Sometimes there is a delay in getting the lab report, if the consignment is used and then the lab report is not as per IS Standard, a penalty of 5 per cent of the price of the consignment in that lot will be levied.
4. If the lab report of the same type of Edible Oil does not conform to IS Standards for three consecutive times, appropriate action will be taken by the Sansthan against the said supplier. No complaint of the supplier will be entertained in this regard.
5. If the report of the Sansthan lab is not as per IS Standards, the same sample will be re-verified at NABL/Central Govt. lab at Mumbai. The inspection report of the said lab will be considered final.

M Method/ procedure of payment of bills.

1. The bill for the Edible Oil supplied shall be paid only after the Oil have been inspected and ascertained to be of correct quality and quantity. No advance will be given for supply of Oil.
2. Efforts will be made to make payment to the concerned supplier within 30 days from the date of submission of the bill to the Sansthan for Oil supplied. However, due to technical queries the payment may be delayed. But in this case supply must be completed as per demand.
3. If the Edible Oil supplied by the tenderer is rejected by the Sansthan and as a result the Sansthan has to purchase the Oil from another Supplier at market price for the next period, the excess cost will be recovered from the Security Deposit amount or other Oil bill payable by the Sansthan.
4. Tax deductions as required by government rules will be made from the bill.

N. Provision regarding calamities/ natural calamities, compensation and penal action :-

1. If the Edible Oil in the supply order are not supplied within the time limit, penal action will be taken as follows:

a) If the value of goods not supplied is less than Rs.2.00 lakhs	0.50% per week up to a maximum of 10%
b) If the value of goods not supplied is Rs.2.00 lakhs or more	0.50 % per week up to a maximum of 5 %

2. If the Edible Oil is not supplied within a maximum of 10 days from the date of issue of the order given over the phone or as per the schedule given in the demand challan, or if the Oil is rejected due to not being of the right quality, the Sansthan will be allowed to purchase the Oil from the other party as much as required at the market price or as much as the order given. The excess amount (difference) for such purchased Oil shall be reimbursed by the tenderer to the Sansthan. The Sansthan reserves the right to recover the said compensation from the Security Deposit amount or from previous/subsequent invoices.
3. It is mandatory to supply the Edible Oil at the approved rate and as per the sample selected in the tender. The Supplier shall not have the right to ask for any increase in the approved rate for any reason or such increase shall not be granted. If the supplier refuses to supply the Oil or does not supply the Oil, the Sansthan has to purchase the Oil at the market price or by asking for re-tendering, the compensation for the excess expenses will be recovered from the supplier. Also appropriate action will be taken in this regard as per the decision taken by the Ad-Hoc Committee/Management Committee/Sub-Committee/Chief Executive Officer of the Sansthan. No complaint of the supplier will be entertained in this regard.

4. During the tender supply period due to a calamity/natural calamity (a calamity beyond the control of the supplier eg. war, heavy rains, drought, kidnapping, casualty, pestilence, strike, explosion, lockout, earthquake etc.) the supplier is unable to supply the oil. The Supplier informed in writing, the appropriate decision in this regard will be taken according to the situation. However, the said provision is limited to condoning the delay in supply only and will not be applicable in case of increase in market price above the sanctioned rate in the above circumstances. The supplier is bound to supply at the approved rate even if the price rises in the market. If the supplier does not supply the security deposit amount will be forfeited or the decision of the Hon'ble Ad Hoc Committee/Hon'ble Management Committee/ Hon'ble Sub-Committee/ Hon'ble Chief Executive Officer shall be binding on the supplier. No complaint will be entertained in this regard.
5. The tenderer should not have any claim/application pending in any court against the Sansthan of any nature whatsoever. Also the tenderer's name should not be included in the black list of the Sansthan. If a claim is filed against the Sansthan, the tender of the said tenderers will not be considered.
